

European Research Infrastructures for a smarter future - policy panel

What are the most important directions for the development of Research Infrastructures in Europe?

- „Making Science Happen“:
 - Focus on serving the needs of science
 - Strong role of research communities in identification and generation

- Scientific excellence as a precondition for impact
- Sustainability throughout the life-cycle

European Research Infrastructures for a smarter future - policy panel

How can the renewed ERA reinforce the global leadership of European Research Infrastructures in pursuit of solutions for the most pressing societal challenges?

- New forms of knowledge creation within and through RIs
- High-quality data / contributions to EOSC
- Understanding the multidimensionality of RI impact
- Integrating knowledge across disciplines
- Long-term perspective